

Joshua Farrier, Frankfurt Disciplinary Board, Lay

Joshua Farrier was born in 1972 in Decatur, Illinois. He studied at the Royal Conservatory of Music in Brussels before completing his undergraduate at the Cleveland Institute of Music. At the University of Missouri in Kansas City, he studied voice while completing a Masters Degree in Romance Languages. He obtained his Doctorate in Music (Voice) from the University of Kansas. He has had a career as a professional singer in Germany since 2003 where he has sung numerous roles. As well as pursuing his stage career, he teaches voice privately in Darmstadt.

I have been an Episcopalian for approximately 20 years. I was raised Pentecostal (Assembly of God), but turned toward the Episcopal Church as a young adult.

When we moved to Berlin in 2008, I became active at St. George's Anglican Church. I served on the Music and Hymn Selection Committees, and later headed up the Concert Series there. Christoph and I have been very involved at Christ the King in Frankfurt. I serve on the Vestry and our Welcoming Committee, and Christoph is a leader of the Youth Group and highly involved in the Communications Team.

I hope you will consider me for the position on the Disciplinary Board.
